Dear Mr. Stuart:

Replying to your card of October 9, the records show one J. R. Lamance, not borne as J. R. Laymance, drew a Confederate Pension from the State of Texas from Grapeland, Anderson County, Texas under file number 12.

J. R. Lamance states in his application for pension that he was a private in Company E, 34th Texas Cavalry, Confederate States Army, serving two years. The date of his enlistment and date of discharge is not given.

Mr. J. R. Lamance filed his application for pension in August, 1899 and he was residing at Grapeland, Anderson County, Texas at that time.

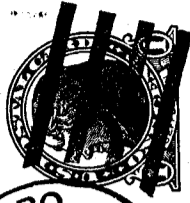

I have examined the pension roll for Alexander Brown and I am unable to find his name on the roll. We only have the records of those men who were granted pensions from the State of Texas or whose widows were granted pensions.

Yours very truly,
