Hon. J.C.Jones,

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing you herewith pension application of Mr. M.C. Bornon. This man has lived in this city and county for a number of years and is well thought of and considered an honorable gentleman. He is practically an invalid and his wife is bed ridden with consumption. Heretofore he has been too proud to make application for a pension. I believe that he is entitled to be placed upon the pension rools. He is unable to get more than one witness to his services.

Yours very truly,
